2018 CONTINUING EDUCATION SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

Burlington, Vermont – the Professional Development Committee awarded four continuing education scholarships during the 122nd AFDO Annual Educational Conference on June 12, 2018.

These awards are given to regulators that are currently employed by a state regulatory agency. The funds are used to subsidize the costs to continue their education in the area of public health.

This year's recipients include:

Lana Buckles, Virginia Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services. Pursing Masters of Science Food Safety, Michigan State University.

Emily Feldpausch, Michigan Department of Agriculture and Rural Development. Pursing Molecular Diagnostics Certificate, Michigan State University.

Ronald Francisco, Florida Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services. Pursing Pharmaceutical Chemistry Degree, University of Florida.

Cameron Owens, Florida Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services. Pursing Master of Science in Cellular and Molecular Biology, Florida State University.

About the Association of Food and Drug Officials:

The Association of Food and Drug Officials (AFDO), established in 1896, successfully fosters uniformity in the adoption and enforcement of science-based food, drug, medical devices, cosmetics and product safety laws, rules, and regulations. AFDO and its six Regional Affiliates provide the mechanism and the forum where regional, national and international issues are deliberated and resolved to uniformly provide the best public health and consumer protection in the most expeditious and cost effective manner.
