

Association of Food and Drug Officials

◆ SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS ◆

Applications must be postmarked by March 1st of the current year to be considered for the current year's award

The Association of Food and Drug Officials (AFDO) is an international, nonprofit organization whose members are concerned with the development and enforcement of uniform food, drug and other consumer protection laws. Through its committees and the efforts of its Regular and Associate members, AFDO supports legislation, develops and circulates "model codes," publishes information circulars and generally works to aid in the overall implementation of sound and effective consumer protection and regulation.

In 1981, AFDO established a scholarship fund with the excess funds from the 75th Anniversary of the Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act. The "George M. Burditt Scholarship", the "Betsy B. Woodward Scholarship" and the "Denise C. Rooney" Scholarship, in the amounts of $2,500 each, will be awarded annually to a worthy recipient who is in their third year of college.

The following qualifications and conditions have been established for the award recipients:

The recipients should have demonstrated a desire to serve in a career of research, regulatory work, quality control, or teaching in an area related to some aspect of foods, drugs or consumer product safety; should have demonstrated leadership capabilities; and must have at least a 3.0 grade average during the first two years of undergraduate study on a scale of 4.0.

To apply, in addition to completing an application, an official and complete college transcript must be submitted, along with letters of recommendation from two faculty members.
